

6 Reasons why Station 6 belongs to the residents of South Boston

- 1 Arts education, more recently the victim of city cost cuts, is vital to learning and creative thinking.
- 2 Local civic & social organizations will thrive with a central meeting venue.
- 3 Youth will find a safe haven to deal with the day-to-day frustrations through arts-related programs.
- 4 Seniors will find easy access to a welcoming neighborhood gathering place.
- 5 Southie's natural assets – local pride, family values, and a strong work ethic reaffirm an involved, vibrant community.
- 6 Economic development in the area will create enterprising development of top-level shops and residences.
